Enclose these documents with the application to exchange apartments: (an incomplete application will not be processed!)

- Certified copy of the proposed tenant's current lease
- Employer certificate for the proposed tenant

Send the application to exchange apartments, signed by both the current and proposed tenant, to your Heimstaden office.

Addresses available at: www.heimstaden.com.

If several apartments are included in the exchange, you must provide a description of the structure of the exchange on a separate form.

Providing as detailed information as possible will assist in the apartment exchange.

If the exchange is approved, the surrendering tenant must terminate their lease before a new lease can be signed with the new tenant.

Affirmations in connection with apartment exchange

We herewith solemnly declare that:

- the information provided in our application to exchange apartments is true;
- the exchange will be carried out in accordance with that information;
- no financial transactions have taken place or will take place in connection with the exchange.

Providing incorrect information in connection with the exchange will result in criminal liability.

The incoming tenant is aware and acknowledges that an executed lease may be terminated, as a consequence of which the rental apartment shall be forfeit, in the event it comes to light, in the future, that information provided regarding the exchange is untrue.

I also consent to my landlord providing information about me as a tenant.
