Heimstaden Privacy Information for prospective tenants (parking lot)

The following privacy information for prospective tenants applies to the application process for a rental property and is therefore not suitable for tenants.

1. Definition of terms

The data protection terms used in the following are defined in Art. 4 GDPR. The full text of the GDPR is available on the Internet at the following link:

<http://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/DE/TXT/PDF/?uri=CELEX:32016R0679&from=DE>

2. Controller according to Art. 4 No. 7 GDPR

Controller within the meaning of Art. 4 No. 7 GDPR is

Heimstaden Germany GmbH

Postal address:

Erkelenzdam 11-13

10999 Berlin

Phone: 030 800 9858 202

E-Mail: service@heimstaden.de

You can reach our data protection officers at dsb_heimstaden@riscreen.de

3. Sources and data used

Heimstaden processes your personal data in the context of the application for the rental property.

The following personal data is processed by us

- First name and surname
- Date of birth
- Current home address
- Phone number
- E-mail address if applicable
- Information on any foreclosures, eviction actions or insolvency proceedings
- Information about your credit rating

4. Processing purposes and legal bases

Heimstaden processes your personal data in accordance with the provisions of the GDPR and the German Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG). In detail:

4.1 Fulfillment of pre-contractual obligations (Art. 6 (1) p. 1 lit. b GDPR)

Heimstaden processes your data to fulfill pre-contractual obligations. The legal basis for this processing is Art. 6 (1) p. 1 lit. b GDPR. The purpose of the processing is:

- The conduction of the pre-contract for the conclusion of a lease agreement between you and Heimstaden

4.2 Legal obligations (Art. 6 (1) p. 1 lit. c GDPR)

Heimstaden processes personal data in order to be able to fulfill legal obligations such as reporting and information obligations to authorities and from tax law:

- Legal obligations include, for example, retention obligations under tax and commercial law, existing obligations to carry out monitoring measures in connection with the fulfillment of due diligence obligations.

4.3 Your consent (Art. 6 (1) p. 1 lit. a GDPR)

Heimstaden processes personal data on the basis of your consent. Data processing is legally permissible if you have consented to such processing for one or more specific purposes. You have the right to withdraw this consent at any time without affecting the legal basis of the processing carried out on the basis of the consent until the withdrawal.

- Information provided voluntarily by you
- Mailing of tenant newsletter and similar content may be based on tenant consent.

4.4 Legitimate interest (Art. 6 (1) p. 1 lit. f GDPR)

Heimstaden also processes data on the basis of legitimate interests:

- The settlement of legal disputes, assertion, exercise and defense of legal claims.
- Schufa information for the purpose of credit assessment (concerns the final three prospective tenants).
- Processing of the (pre-)rental contract with employees within the Heimstaden Group.

5. Recipients of personal data

Within Heimstaden, only those departments will have access to your data that need it to fulfill their tasks in connection with application procedures.

In order to be able to offer our service optimally, we also exchange data within the Heimstaden Group, insofar as this is necessary to safeguard our legitimate interests and your interests or fundamental rights and freedoms do not outweigh our interests.

We also transfer your personal data to the following parties for the following purposes. The transfer is only made on an as-needed basis and only those personal data are transferred by us that are required for the respective recipient and for the provision of its services or its involvement:

- IT service providers – we contract IT service providers in the area of data processing.
- Public authorities – we may transfer personal data to courts, supervisory authorities, tax authorities and other public authorities on the basis of statutory regulations.
- Schufa Holding AG -For the purpose of checking the creditworthiness of prospective tenants, we transmit personal data collected in the context of this (pre)contractual relationship prior to the conclusion of the rental agreement to SCHUFA Holding AG, Kormoranweg 5, 65201 Wiesbaden, Germany, as well as data on non-contractual or fraudulent behavior. The legal basis for these transfers is Article 6 (1) (b) and Article 6 (1) (f) GDPR. Transfers based on Art. 6 (1) (f) GDPR may only be made if this is necessary to protect the legitimate interests of the landlord or third parties and does not override the interests or fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject that require the protection of personal data. SCHUFA processes data and also uses it for the purpose of profiling (scoring) in order to provide its contractual partners in the European Economic Area and in Switzerland and, where applicable, other third countries (insofar as there is an adequacy decision on these by the European Commission) with information on, among other things, the assessment of the creditworthiness of natural persons. Further information on SCHUFA's activities can be found in the SCHUFA information sheet at www.schufa.de/datenschutz

As far as the aforementioned third parties are not themselves data controllers according to Art. 4 No. 7 GDPR, they process your data as so-called processors on our behalf according to Art. 28 GDPR. Processors only process personal data according to instructions and are contractually obligated to comply with the applicable data protection regulations.

6. Third country transfer

No data is transferred to countries outside the EU or the EEA (so-called third countries).

7. Storage period

We process personal data for as long as is necessary to achieve the purpose for which it was collected. In the present case, until the application process is completed, or until the final conclusion of a tenancy agreement with an applicant. After that, the data is deleted.

8. Your privacy rights

As a data subject of a data processing operation, you have in particular the following (data subject) rights under the GDPR:

- Right of access – Pursuant to Art. 15 GDPR, you may request information from us as to whether Heimstaden processes personal data of you and which data this is.
- Right to rectification – If your data is incorrect, you can request a correction in accordance with Art. 16 GDPR. If your data is incomplete, you can request that it be completed. If Heimstaden has disclosed your data to third parties, these third parties will be informed about your correction – if required by law.

- Right to erasure – You have the right to have your data deleted, provided that the requirements of Art. 17 GDPR are met (especially if the purposes for which your data was collected or processed cease to apply).
- Right to restriction of processing – You have the right to restrict processing, provided that the requirements of Art. 18 GDPR are met.
- Right to data portability – In accordance with Art. 20 GDPR Heimstaden will, if you wish, make your data available to you for further use or transfer it to a recipient to be designated by you.
- Right to withdraw consent – If consent has been given to process personal data, the right exists to withdraw the given consent at any time with effect for the future, i.e. the withdrawal does not affect the lawfulness of the processing carried out before the withdrawal on the basis of the consent. After withdrawal, Heimstaden may further process the personal data only to the extent that the processing is still necessary for Heimstaden due to legal obligations. The withdrawal can be made form-free, e.g. by e-mail to service@heimstaden.de or by sending a message to the contact details provided above. In addition, you can declare the revocation of the subscription to the newsletter by clicking on the link provided in a newsletter e-mail.
- Right to object to processing – Pursuant to Art. 21 (1) GDPR, you have the right to object at any time, on grounds relating to your particular situation, to the processing of personal data relating to you which is carried out on the basis of Art. 6 (1) sentence 1 lit. f GDPR (data processing for the purposes legitimate interests). Insofar as you object, we will no longer process your personal data for the purposes covered by the objection unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate reasons that override the interests, rights and freedoms of the data subject, or the processing serves the enforcement, exercise or defense of legal claims. Insofar as the objection is also or only directed against data processing for direct marketing, we will no longer process your personal data for this purpose.
The objection can be made informally, e.g. by e-mail to service@heimstaden.de or by sending a message to the contact details provided.
- Right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority – You have a right of appeal to a data protection supervisory authority (Art. 77 GDPR in conjunction with § 19 BDSG)

We recommend that you always address a complaint to us first.

9. Effect of non-disclosure

If the aforementioned personal data are not provided, Heimstaden will not be able to collect them and participation in the application process may not take place.

10. No automated decision making

Heimstaden does not use fully automated decision-making within the meaning of Art. 22 GDPR for the establishment and implementation of contractual relationships.
